Mid-Continent aircraft heads north to Canada

Bruce Scott of DSM Farms Limited in Edgerton, Alberta, Canada traveled to Hayti, Missouri to take possession of a 2012 Thrush H80 Model 510G that he purchased from Mid-Continent Aircraft Corporation.

The H80 provides increased temperature margins to enhance hot-day takeoff performance and high-altitude cruise speeds. Like all Thrush aircraft, the 510G delivers plenty of thrust for full payload performance without sacrificing any of its amazing agile handling.

Prizes awarded at Ag Aviation Expo

Mid-Continent Aircraft Corporation awarded two prizes to attendees of the 2018 Ag Aviation Expo held in Reno, Nevada in December.

Brandt Bottoms of Gould, Arkansas won an aviation-themed bar set from the Aviators Tavern Collection.

James Hodge of Hangton, Louisiana won an agricultural flight helmet.

Congratulations to both recipients.
